Cyviz awarded contracts for a range of executive meeting rooms at Middle East investment company - NOK 10,2 million (USD 1,2 million)

February 2, 2021

The Middle East investment company continues to deploy standardized technology across their offices and conference rooms. Cyviz was selected to equip their most important executive meeting rooms and upgrade their current installations with the latest collaboration technology.

The investment company has extensive collaboration technology requirements and expects any meeting or presentation to be delivered with high precision. Since they first started using Cyviz technology six years ago, they have treasured the usability, remote management and monitoring capabilities, keeping their systems up to date at any given time.

“Corporate customers, particularly finance and consulting firms, are constantly looking to improve productivity and collaboration. Our corporate customers in the Middle East are standardizing on Cyviz to gain a competitive edge,” says Cyviz CEO Espen Gylvik.

The Cyviz Easy Platform ensures effective deployment, management and reliable user experiences. It connects the different rooms and enables remote support and monitoring to ensure the rooms' availability at any given time.
