Once the form has been submitted through Altinn, a pdf copy will be made. The pdf copy will provide an overview of the information that has been reported to Finanstilsynet (the Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway). This pdf copy can be used as a basis for reporting the transaction to the issuer or the emission allowance market participant. The person discharging managerial responsibilities (PDMR) is responsible for the content of the information forwarded. The issuer, or emission allowance market participant, may use the information in the pdf copy as a basis for the public disclosure of the transaction, i.e. by retrieving information from the pdf copy and entering it in its own publication system/tool. Please note that the pdf copy contains free text fields that may contain personal information or other information that is not to be publicly disclosed. The pdf copy from Altinn should therefore not be pasted into or be an attachment to the notice that is publicly disclosed. Information on the notifiable trade should be included in the actual notice that is disclosed. The receipt sent by e-mail does not include a pdf copy of the form.
