

Huddlestock enhance IaaS-offering with long-standing customer Fair Investments

12.3.2025 15:53:21 CET | Huddlestock Fintech AS | Non-regulatory press releases

Huddlestock Fintech AS ("Huddlestock"), a leading investment technology and services provider, has renewed an agreement with its long-time Swedish customer Fair Investments AB ("Fair Investments"). By evolving its existing agreement with Huddlestock, Fair Investments will fully adopt Huddlestock's Investment-as-a-Service solution, including its custody services.

"This strengthened collaboration underscores Fair Investment's confidence in our technology and services. We are proud to support Fair Investments in taking this next step, further validating the quality of our solutions", said Leif Arnold Thomas, CEO of Huddlestock. "With strong recent commercial momentum and several new signed agreements with both existing and new customers, we are focused on expanding our customer base and strengthening client relationships, positioning Huddlestock for continued growth."

Fair Investments is a Swedish securities firm authorized by the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority. Specializing in discretionary asset management and fund management.

Since January 2021, Huddlestock has provided investor services for Fair Investments. Under the enhanced agreement, Huddlestock will now deliver a comprehensive IaaS solution, including custody services. The agreement aligns with Huddlestock's strategy of scaling through AUM-driven business models and is expected to generate revenue in line with the previous collaboration between the parties.
