Huddlestock Fintech AS (OSE: HUDL), today announce that Morten Bernhardsen is appointed as the Group's new Chief Financial Officer. Bernhardsen will take on the new role as of January 2, 2024.

Bernhardsen is currently holding a position as CFO at Midelfart Capital AS and Pescara AS. Before his current position, he has extensive experience from the financial services sector and international, listed companies. He started his career at Gjensidige and has since held central positions with Sector Asset Management, Bulk Infrastructure Group and Navamedic.

"I am excited that Morten will join Huddlestock's management team as our new Group CFO. He has extensive experience from management positions at listed growth companies and the financial services sector, which is highly relevant for Huddlestock. He will be a solid addition to our management team, supporting our growth ambitions and strategy to deliver on our Investment-as-a-Service concept", says John E. Skajem, CEO Huddlestock Fintech AS.

"I look forward to become a central member of Huddlestock's management team and to contribute with my experience and perspectives to support the continued growth of the Huddlestock group", says Morten Bernhardsen.
